Bus Route 29 Extended to Better Serve Airport

Oklahoma City – Traveling to and from the airport by utilizing public transportation is easier than ever. Passengers can now board or exit the bus at the newly renovated Transportation Plaza at Will Rogers World Airport, where the terminal is just steps away.

The new bus stop located at the Transportation Plaza will make commuting by public transportation very convenient. METRO Transit now provides curb-to-curb service for visitors and employees. With direct access to dozens of hotels and eating establishments along Meridian, route 29 is more convenient than ever.

Route 29 also links up with routes 8, 9, 10, 11, 38 and the Orange Line Trolley, all of which provide transportation to downtown and other areas of interest.

Bus schedules are available at Will Rogers World Airport, Meridian area hotels, Hollywood Hotel on NW 39th & Portland, the Downtown Transit Center, Metropolitan Libraries and several other locations throughout the metro area or visit www.gometro.org to view and download copies.

Experience METRO Transit's route 29 today, call 235-RIDE for a coupon good for a FREE ride this month.

METRO Transit is a division of the Central Oklahoma Transit and Parking Authority (COTPA). COTPA is a public trust responsible for providing downtown parking alternatives as well as safe, efficient, and convenient transportation to the citizens of the Greater Oklahoma City Metropolitan area.
