

Media Advisory

APRIL 27, 2007

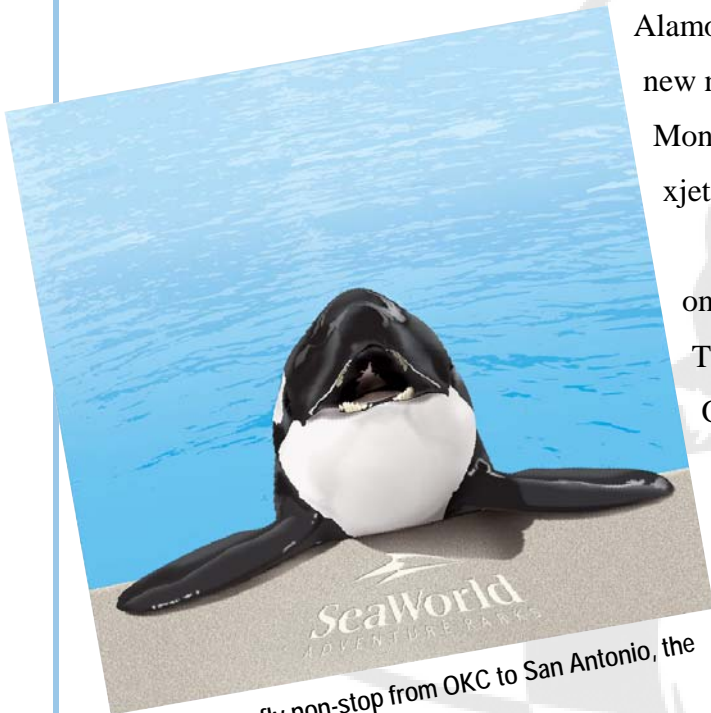

Contact: Jennifer James McCollum
(405) 680-3262/www.flyokc.com

Fly Nonstop from OKC to See Shamu

WILL ROGERS WORLD AIRPORT (April 27, 2007) Oklahoma City travelers can now fly to San Antonio to see Sea World's Shamu, take a stroll on the city's famed riverwalk or catch a glimpse of The Alamo — all without changing planes. ExpressJet will launch new non-stop service from Oklahoma City to San Antonio Monday, April 30. Passengers can make reservations at www.xjet.com.

ExpressJet began service out of Will Rogers World Airport on April 16, with its inaugural flight to Ontario, California. The airline, which prides itself if meeting the needs of Oklahoma City's growing market, also offers daily, non-stop service to Albuquerque and Austin. Daily non-stop service to Sacramento and San Diego begins May 7.

-END-

You can now fly non-stop from OKC to San Antonio, the home of Sea World and Shamu.