

Transportation
Security Administration

Media Advisory

Date: August, 16th, 2005

Contact: Andrea McCauley
817-528-0470 cell

TSA Honors Screeners who Discovered Explosive Device at Will Rogers World Airport

The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) at Will Rogers World Airport is honoring screeners for their exemplary work in advancing aviation security through the discovery of an explosive device at the checkpoint last week. Awards will be presented to the screeners for their contribution to TSA's mission, vision and core values through their display of excellence.

Who: Larry Kettler, Transportation Security Administration, Federal Security Director,
Will Rogers World Airport Representative

Where: VIP Room, 3rd Floor. Will Rogers World Airport. For access, use elevator on east side near Southwest Bag Claim.

When: 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, August 17th

Other special guests include: Flossie Ridley- Award Recipient
Victor Kunnath- Award Recipient
Doug Bentley- Award Recipient

Note: Federal Security Director Larry Kettler and local screener award winners will be available for interviews following the ceremony.

###

