

NEWS RELEASE

WILL ROGERS WORLD AIRPORT

Media Advisory

MAY 21, 2007

Contact: Jennifer James McCollum
(405) 680-3262/www.flyokc.com

Will Rogers offers links, tips to ease travel with kids

I'm thinking of swim suits and sprinklers, imagining lemonade stands.
I'm lost in a daydream of squirt guns and ice cream and plenty of time on my hands.
—From Kenn Nesbitt's poem, Dreaming of Summer

WILL ROGERS WORLD AIRPORT (May 21, 2007) The last day of school marks the beginning of the busy summer travel season for airlines and airports. Will Rogers World Airports offers families the following links and tips to help them plan their summer travel adventures.

Links & Tips

Check out the article, "Plane Advice About Kids" at <http://familyfun.go.com/family-travel/places/feature/dony27planeadvice/dony27planeadvice.html>. This article offers great tips for flying with children.

The Web site, www.flyingwithkids.com, offers tips for flying with infants and toddlers as well as shopping for baby and child air travel accessories and products. Also, check out the infant travel stories section.

Royalty-free photo courtesy www.office.microsoft.com.

The Web site, <http://www.ehow.com> offers step-by-step instructions on how to make a paper airplane—a great activity to help elementary school children pass the time while waiting for planes to arrive and depart, etc. Be sure to type "paper airplane" in the search box.

Many children visit parents and grandparents during the summer. Visit <http://www.smartertravel.com> for important information about putting them on planes by themselves.. Type "traveling with minors" in the search box.

For a complete list of nonstop destinations in and out of Will Rogers World Airport, including many family-friendly destinations, visit <http://www.flyokc.com/releases/NonStop%20Schedule.pdf>.

Finally, don't forget to refresh your memory about 3-1-1. Visit www.tsa.gov for information on what you can and cannot take on board a plane, including important information about milk and formula for babies.

-END-