United Airlines Begins Nonstop Service to San Antonio

OKLAHOMA CITY – Today United Airlines and their United Express partner, Trans States Airlines, launch nonstop service to San Antonio from Oklahoma City. The new service is the only nonstop flight between the two cities, saving Oklahoma City travelers time to one its top 25 destinations.

United has announced an introductory fare of $74 one way. Tickets must be purchased by March 17, 2006 and travel must be completed by April 30. Tickets can be purchased online at www.ual.com, through United Airlines Reservations at 1-800-864-8331 or through travel agencies.

United Express will operate the new daily service seven days a week with 50-seat Embraer 145 regional jets. The schedule will be as follows:

From Oklahoma City to San Antonio

Flight #	Departs OKC	Arrives San Antonio
7460	10:55am	12:25 pm

From San Antonio to Oklahoma City

Flight #	Departs San Antonio	Arrives OKC
7456	7:15pm	8:45 pm

Tickets can be purchased online at www.ual.com, through United Airlines reservations at 1-800-864-8331 or through travel agencies.

San Antonio will be the second market that United has added in the last two weeks. Nonstop service to New Orleans began February 23 just in time for the Mardi Gras celebrations. The addition of the two new markets brings the number of nonstop destinations from Oklahoma City to 18 providing travelers more convenience, booking options and competitive fares.

United Airlines also provides daily nonstop service from Will Rogers World Airport to Chicago and Denver. The airline has served Oklahoma City since 1981.
